Breakfast and After-School Clubs Term 1 2023

If you would like your child to attend breakfast or afterschool clubs, please read the following information.

Breakfast Club

Children must be dropped at the gate on Salisbury Road between 7.45am and 7.55am. As places are limited, all bookings and payments must be made in advance via Arbor and will be on a “first come, first served” basis, you can book single days, multiple days, a whole week or a whole term in advance.

There is a daily charge of £3.50 via Arbor.

Children who are eligible for Pupil Premium can apply for a free place by booking on Arbor and ticking the Pupil Premium option.

Children who are eligible for Pupil Premium can apply for one free club place a term by contacting the school office. Places are limited so please phone in as soon as possible.

Any child with significant additional needs who has additional support in school will need to speak to the Senior Leadership Team before a place can be allocated.

Don't forget to book your slot

Please remember our “WAC (wrap around care) Club”. Premier Education will provide a range of stimulating and creative activities whilst looking after your children up until 6.00pm Monday to Thursday. For further information, please see the attached information leaflet.

Thank you for all your support.

Kind Regards
Carrie Old
